

2020 CREDIT COMMITTEE NOMINEES

Althia La Pierre Mitchell

is a respected member of the Mayaro Community and a dedicated teacher at the Mayaro Government Primary School. She is a proud mother of one and a loyal member to GEACU, serving on various committees at the organization.

GEACU Member: 19 years

Credit Union and other activities: Served on both the credit committee and supervisory committee for the past ten (10) years.

Dianne Baptiste

has over 35 years of finance and accounting experience through her professional career as Commercial Analyst and Business Support Manager in the Energy Sector.

GEACU Member: 37 years

Credit Union and other activities: Served on the Board of Directors, Supervisory Committee, Education Committee and is currently the Chairperson of the Credit Committee.

Krishendath Singh

is an entrepreneur in the Mayaro Community. He has spent his life within the area and has great pride in its development hence the reason he joined GEACU. His main objectives for applying for service includes educating and empowering members in achieving their financial goals and helping to build the community through thrift.

GEACU Member: 22 years

Credit Union and other activities: He has actively contributed to the development of the Credit Union movement having served on the Supervisory Committee, the Board of Directors and more recently the Credit Committee.

Mark Mitchell

is a diligent member of GEACU, serving proudly on various committees such as Supervisory Committee and Credit Committee.

GEACU Member: 34 years

Credit Union and other activities: He is currently an active serving member of the Credit Committee for the past six (6) years.

Natasha Rodney

is a proud resident of the Mayaro community. She has a solid academic background in Business Management and Process Technology. Over the past 24 years she has worked as an Administrative Assistant, CMMS Analyst and Cost Analyst with developed specialties in Planning and Scheduling, Records Management, Computerized Maintenance Management and Cost Management.

GEACU Member: 20 years

Credit Union and other activities: For the past six (6) years she has served on the Board of Directors, Education and Supervisory committees.

Patricia Beckles-Sandy

was directly involved in the Credit Union Movement from 1987 - 1997. She started as an Accounts Clerk and left as the Loans Manager, Recoveries Supervisor/Arbitrator. At UWI she obtained a B.Sc. in Management Studies, and Certificates in Business Administration, Auditing, Human Resource, and Counselling. She is currently pursuing a course in Paralegal Studies.

GEACU Member: 20 years

Credit Union and other activities: An Adult Volunteer with the Juvenile Court Annex of Trinidad and Tobago attached to the Family Court.