

2020 SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE NOMINEES

Esther Noel

has been a Foundation Director of a grassroots Loan Facility in Mayaro for approximately nineteen (19) years. She has also been a director for Mayaro Initiative for Enterprise Development (MIPED) for the past ten (10) years where her ideas for inclusion and diversity has had a positive impact on the program.

GEACU Member: 14 years

Credit Union and other activities: She previously served on GEACU Supervisory, Education and Credit Committee has served on the Boards of the South East Regional Chapter and the Credit Union League of Trinidad and Tobago, for many years.

John Wildman

GEACU Member: 34 years

Credit Union and other activities: A versatile member of GEACU, serving on many of the different committees as well as the Board of Directors for the past twenty-five (25) years.

Tricia Lynch

is a graduate of Arthur Lok Jack Global School of Business where she earned an Executive MBA. She also has an Associate Degree in Management with Accounting from COSTAATT, and various other certificates. Her volunteer work consists of working with special needs young adults, Business Councils, and school PTA's.

GEACU Member: 25 years

Credit Union and other activities: Served on the Mayaro Secondary Local School Board as the Vice President and PTA Representative for the period 2018-2020. She has also served as the Secretary for GEACU's Supervisory Committee since 2019.